THE HAND OF THE LORD FEEDS US : Psalm 145; 16

Through many ways God proves that he owns the world and that he loves all that he has made and specially cares for His people. Without this loving act of God, humanity and indeed all living things would not be able to survive even for a second in this world despite their own efforts. It is in him we live and move and have our being and we owe our life to Him.

God, in the first reading used his chosen and great prophet Elisha to take care of the needs of his people of old. God acted through Elisha to prove that his concern and priority is how to satisfy our needs; he does not need anything and even if he does like in the case of Elisha, our own needs are of paramount importance to him and a priority to be attended to. He shows his generosity and selflessness in his relationship with his people. This was the reason for Elisha giving out what was meant for him to the people. Here like in the gospel of today, God multiplied the little barley loaves and fresh grain. It was an impossible mission for his servant just as in the case of Jesus in the gospel was also an incredible thing for Phillip. The servant of Elisha saw as humans that such quantity of food cannot go round to a hundred people; too insufficient to manage.

This was a similar scenario in the gospel when Phillip reported to Jesus that two hundred dinarii would not be able even to give the crowd a little pebble.

What humans see as impossible becomes not only possible with God but too simple and easy. This is why Luke made us aware that with God all things are possible (Lk. 1: 37). St Paul advises us Christians to live a life worthy of our calling. Be humble, kind, patient, bear with one another in love and to be like Christ and do what he does. Let us be charitable and then maintain the unity of the spirit given to us. We share one call, one hope, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father who is above all, through all and is in all. May God make us aware of our duty and demands of our call as Christians.

Let us observe that it was the charity of others to Elisha and the reserved food of the lad that they made available for the satisfaction of the needs of others. What would Elisha have used if the person did not give him those gifts? What would Jesus have used if the little boy did not make available his little food security to Jesus? Is it not possible that some people in that crowd reserved theirs for personal and selfish consumption? God needs you to do the miracle of saving and serving the other's needs would you resist him?

Some excuse themselves that what they have is little and not enough to share but that is escapist attitude. "One day a man was walking along the beach when he noticed a figure in the distance. As he got closer, he realized the figure was that of a boy picking something up and gently throwing it into the ocean. Approaching the boy, he asked: 'What are you doing?' The youth replied: 'Throwing starfish in the ocean. The sun is up and the tide is going out. If I don't throw them in, they'll die.'

Bunnings Sausage Sizzle

This fundraising event held last Saturday raised $629.25 for ac.care. Despite the freezing cold and windy conditions our volunteers rugged up in their thermals to keep the cold at bay throughout the day!!

Thank you to those who braved the conditions and also Maree McIntyre for cutting up the onions.

Fundraising Team

'Son,' the man replied: 'don't you realize there are miles and miles of beach and hundreds of starfish? You can't possibly make a difference!' After listening politely, the boy bent down, picked up another starfish, and threw it into the surf. Then, smiling at the man, he said: 'I made a difference for that one'. (Loren Eiseley, The Star Thrower).

God makes abundant our insufficiency to become not only sufficient but abundant and overflowing. When with good heart we allow God in our littleness and show charity, God of providence would surprise us by what he would do in our lives.

Prayer during COVID 19

Our heavenly Father, we come before you with contrite hearts, yearning for your comfort and your grace. In the midst of COVID 19 spreading across the globe, we ask in your mercy that you would stop this plague and restore harmony and health to the nations.

And we pray for the families, especially those who have lost loved ones to this disease, or those suffering from its effects. May we know the peace that passes all understanding, as we place our trust in Jesus, in whose powerful name we pray.

Amen.
