Life in abundance in Jesus

As a Christian community, we acknowledge and pay respect to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the traditional custodians of the lands on which we gather and meet.

We pay our respects to the Elders—past, present and emerging.

LIFE IN ABUNDANCE IN JESUS

This fourth Sunday of the Easter season is sometimes called Good Shepherd Sunday because in each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel reading invites us to reflect on Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In each cycle the reading is from the tenth chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter sets the framework for Jesus' teaching about himself as the Good Shepherd.

Today's reading falls between the stories of Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the raising of Lazarus. Both of these stories were proclaimed in the Gospels found in this year's season of Lent. Following the controversy that ensued when Jesus healed the man born blind, Jesus directs his allegory about the sheep and the shepherd toward the Jewish religious leaders of his time, the Pharisees.

Throughout John's Gospel the Pharisees fail to accept Jesus' ministry and teaching. They show themselves to be "robbers and thieves" because they try to lead the sheep without entering through the gate, Jesus. Through these metaphors, Jesus is telling his listeners that those who follow him and his way will find abundant life. He identifies himself both as the shepherd and the gate. The shepherds who are faithful to him are the ones whom the sheep (Jesus' disciples) should follow.

The relationship between the sheep and their shepherd is based on familiarity. Sheep recognize their shepherd and will not follow a stranger. At the end of the day, shepherds lead their sheep from pastures to a common gated area called a sheep-fold. There, one shepherd protects all of the sheep until the next day when each shepherd returns to lead his own sheep to pasture. As shepherds move among the sheep, the sheep follow only their shepherd.

Palm 23 is a beautiful way to live, a way that leads to life, peace and true happiness. Jesus in the Gospel today tells us that he came precisely so that may live with that life, peace and happiness described in Psalm 23, "I have come so that they may have life and have it to the full". (John 10:10)

As we listen to these words of Jesus in today's Gospel they take on added meaning because we are in the Easter season. We have celebrated Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus had to die to himself to live his new life. Jesus has shown us how to live life to the fullest, we must die to ourselves in order to rise to new life. Our secularized world thinks it has the answer to our needs but what it offers only leads us into deeper despair.

FOOD and FREEZER MINISTRY

When preparing meals for the freezer, please remember to list all ingredients in the meal, and the date on which it was prepared.
Pre-prepared goods such as frozen packaged foods and meals are still acceptable.

With the arrival of school holidays, children's activities will take a break, before resuming on Sunday, 7 May, in time for preparations for the Mother's Day Service the following week.

We thank all families for their enthusiastic participation, support and encouragement. We have amazing talent within these ranks, and sincerely appreciate each contributor. The congregation is richly blessed by the joy of their active participation in worship.

Kaylene Barreira, on behalf of Children's Ministry.

Pray for those people who are unwell and for each other

Sue Ongley; Maree Lynch; Joe Maier; Wendy Monger; Shirley Stacpoole; Terry Wilson; Anne Barry (Glen Solomons' godmother); Sandy Coulson; Betty and Max Wright; Glenys Smith

Pray for the repose of the souls of those near and dear to each one of us and for those whose yearly remembrance occurs this week.

If you wish for your name (or the name of someone you know) to be placed on the prayer list, please submit the request in writing—preferably via email (including your name and the name of the person for whom prayers are required). Forms for this purpose can also be found at the back of the church.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!!

(A parody on Psalm 23 in a homily broadcast on EWTN on March 18 2002)

There are a few tasks in the Church Office that need a person—or persons—to undertake.

One of them is the Archive cupboard which needs to be reviewed and additional documents/files etc. need to be sorted and filed.

These documents form an important part of the history of Christ Church, and it would be good to bring things up to date.

If you would like to take on this task, please speak to Fr Neil or Lynn as soon as possible.

Thank you

Our new parishioners, Tony and Lillian, are looking for a rental property in Mt Gambier. If you know of anyone who has a house to rent, please let them know as soon as you can.

The TV is my shepherd I shall not want,
It makes me to lie down on the sofa.
It leads me away from the faith,
It destroys my soul.
It leads me to the path of sex and violence
for the advertiser's sake.
Even though I walk in the shadow of Christian responsibilities,
There will be no interruption, for the TV is with me.
Its cable and remote control, they comfort
me
It prepares a commercial for me in the midst of my worldliness
And anoints my head with secular human ism and consumerism.
My covetousness runs over;
Surely ignorance and laziness shall follow
me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of wretchedness watching TV forever.

Only dying to ourselves as we follow Jesus will lead us to the happiness we seek. Jesus teaches us that the way to happiness lies not in filling up each of our wants and needs and desires. The way to happiness lies in a very different choice of life; the way to happiness may be found in sacrificing and taking up our cross with Jesus, reproducing the life of Jesus in our own lives. And so Jesus says, I am the gate. Anyone who enters through me will be safe: he will go freely in and out and be sure of finding pasture... (John 10:9).
